

SFU SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY ENGAGING THE WORLD

President's Dream Colloquium on HIV/AIDS

This Colloquium aims to inspire and mobilize the next generation of researchers, policy-makers, activists, artists and advocates with an interdisciplinary understanding of the past, current, and future response to the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

Jan 8 & 9 The Lived Experience: Art, Advocacy & HIV
 SFU Harbour Centre
 This curated multimedia interactive art exhibition showcases pieces that speak to the history, experiences, activism, and research related to HIV in Vancouver and beyond.

Jan 8: Lecture & Art Exhibition
 6:00 – 9:30 PM (see below for details)
Jan 9: Art Exhibition
 9:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Jan 8 Innovation, Activism, and the Arts: Vancouver's History in HIV
 SFU Harbour Centre
Valerie Nicholson Chair of the Board, Canadian Aboriginal AIDS Network & Indigenous Peer Navigator for the Positive Living Society of BC
Julio Montaner, MD Director, BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS

Jan 22 Towards an HIV Cure: Challenges and Prospects
 SFU Burnaby
Zabrina Brumme, PhD Laboratory Director, BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS

Feb 5 Issues in Criminalization of HIV Non-Disclosure and its Influence on the Landscape of HIV in Canada
 SFU Burnaby
Richard Elliot Director, Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network
Marvelous Muchenje Community Health Coordinator at Women's Health in Women's Hands, Co-Principal Investigator on the Women, ART, and the Criminalization of HIV Study
Angela Kaida, PhD Associate Professor SFU, Co-Principal Investigator on the Women, ART, and the Criminalization of HIV Study

Feb 26 HIV and Indigenous Communities in Canada
 SFU Burnaby
Danita Wahpoosewyan Activist, Peer Support Worker at AIDS Programs South Saskatchewan
Carrie Bourassa, PhD Professor of Indigenous Health, College of Medicine, Department of Community Health & Epidemiology, and Scientific Director at CIHR Institute of Indigenous People's Health
Alexandra King, MD Cameco Chair in Indigenous Health, University of Saskatchewan

Mar 11 Towards a Vaccine for HIV
 SFU Harbour Centre
Glenda Gray, MBBCH President of the South African Medical Research Council, Director of the HIV Vaccine Trials Network Africa Programs

Mar 19 Community Perspectives on Living with HIV & Where We Go From Here
 SFU Surrey
Bernard Andreason Activist, Community Leader
Dakota Descoteaux Activist, Community Leader
Patience Magagula Director, Afro-Canadian Positive Network of BC

Mar 27 Injection Drug Use and the Interacting Epidemics of Substance Use and HIV
 SFU Woodward's
Hansel Tookes, MD Spearheaded Effort to Open First Needle Exchange in Florida, Assistant Professor at the Miami Miller School of Medicine

THESE ARE FREE PUBLIC EVENTS
 RSVP is required as there is limited seating
ALL LECTURES: 6:30 – 7:30 PM

SUPPORTED BY

This President's Dream Colloquium is generously supported by: the SFU President's Office; Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies; Office of the Vice-President, Research; CAHR; BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS; SFU Faculty of Health Sciences; Morris J. Wosk Centre for Dialogue; SSHRC; Tiko Kerr; Positive Living; Afro-Canadian Positive Network of BC; The Dr. Peter Centre; YouthCO; Joe Average; Denbigh Fine Arts, Presentation Framing

Learn more and RSVP: www.sfu.ca/pdc